

I am opposed to the CBAs request to weaken Indiana privacy laws. If consumers need to contact their businesses, they will do so. We don't need to weaken the current law to account for this type of activity or waste taxpayer money on constantly defending our laws.